Capital Market Consultants, Inc. is set to Expand as New Marketing Associate Joins the Firm

Milwaukee (PRWEB) May 17, 2017 — Capital Market Consultants, Inc. is excited to announce the addition of Mark Witzke to the firm. He has recently earned his B.A. in Marketing and Supply Chain Management from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Mark joined the team in June of 2016 as an intern and will now be joining the team full-time starting June 1st, 2017. Mark will help assist and have lead roles in website management, digital marketing and analysis, email distribution, social media and internal sales support.

"As a recent college graduate, I look forward to the next step with Capital Market Consultants. I'm ready to make an impact and help market CMC. Already having an understanding of the areas CMC wants to grow will be beneficial. CMC already has a great reputation as an experienced research consulting firm but I hope to grow that reputation through new marketing tactics I've learned over the years. The opportunity for growth is endless and I'm ecstatic to be a part of the future of CMC."

"Mark has been a reliable contributor to our firm since he arrived. Having him full time and giving his own ideas a chance to influence the execution of our plan for growth is a luxury we have not yet enjoyed in our firm's history. Mark will be the first full time associate we have had focused exclusively on expanding our footprint in the marketplace. I will be working closely with him day in a day out to develop and execute our plan" according to CMC CEO Barry Mendelson, CIMA.
