Capital Market Consultants, Inc. Expands as New Senior Investment Analyst Joins the Firm

Milwaukee (PRWEB) September 26, 2018 — Capital Market Consultants, Inc. is excited to announce the addition of Senior Investment Analyst Andrew Hurvitz to the firm. Andrew has over 25 years of experience as an investment professional. He earned his B.S. from Skidmore College in 1990 and has been a CFA charterholder since 2001. Andrew will have a lead role in manager research. In addition, he will institute and lead our new Emerging Managers Program while also playing a significant role in increasing AUM for our Fund of Funds (FOF) Strategies.

"I have known Barry professionally for over a decade, now I am pleased to join the CMC team. I look forward to working for a consulting firm with diversified lines of business, which fits well with my multi-dimensional background. CMC has a great reputation, and I plan to leverage the CMC brand via my national network of Managers/Funds. I am excited to get started", noted Hurvitz.

"Andy brings a wealth of experience to our firm. His background expands on our core competencies of economic, capital market and investment manager research. We are excited to have our clients meet Andy", said Barry Mendelson, CIMA, founder of CMC.
